W. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rowland and son Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland received many presents.

Thanksgiving Dance.
Invitations have been issued by the Fairmont hotel for a dance to be given on Thanksgiving evening which promises to be a brilliant affair. Dancing will begin at nine o'clock and continue until one o'clock and music will be furnished by fine musicians. Much interest centers in this affair and the patronesses will be Mesdames J. E. Watson, M. L. Hutchinson, C. W. Watson, E. F. Hartley, George DeBolt, W. S. Raymond, W. H. Conaway, E. H. Smith, Edwin Robinson, Brooks Fleming.

Wheeling Guests.
Hon. J. J. P. O'Brien city solicitor of Wheeling and Mrs. O'Brien were week end guests of Marshall and Mrs. C. E. Smith at their home on Quincy street. They were en route home from Philadelphia where Mr. O'Brien had been in connection with the session of the Federal court.

Left Today.
Mrs. Emory McKinney and daughter Miss Isabel left today for Denver, Colo., where they will spend the next few months for the benefit of the latter's health.

Church Lecture Course.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Highland avenue M. E. church will not serve supper, and hold festivals this year to meet their financial obligations, but have chosen another way. The plan is to have a lecture course; and a most excellent program has been arranged for five numbers. There will be one concert, three lectures and one entertainment. They are selling the season tickets for one dollar and about 200 have already been sold. The first number takes place tomorrow evening at 7:30 at the Barnes school auditorium. This is a concert given by the Pitzer orchestra and the Dunbar quartette. The second is a lecture, Dec. 2, by Dr. James E. Scott of Parkersburg; subject, "Cupid's Capers." The third is an illustrated lecture by Dr. Appleton Bash of Pittsburgh; subject Six O'clock Around the World.

Dinner Thursday.
Only four hundred tickets will be sold for the chicken and waffle supper to be given at the First M. E. church Thursday evening by the Home Missionary Society of that church. Public suppers at the First M. E. church usually draw a crowd ranging from six to seven hundred persons, for the women are famous cooks and the location favorable. The late comers have always had to be satisfied with a rather scrappy meal but the women are determined to have as much a thing to happen at this supper. They will prepare a wonderful, bountiful meal for four hundred with no limit set on the hot waffles and brown sugar syrup for ticket holders, but no ticket will be sold twice; thus, every patron will be insured satisfactory service and a hearty meal.

A famous waffle baker, Andrew Brown, is coming from Pittsburgh to handle the baking end of the supper. This man has had seventeen years experience in this work and will handle the job with ease. Tickets for the supper will be $1.00 each. The menu follows:

Chicken Mashed Potatoes
Waffles Gravy
Preserves Brown Sugar Syrup
Pickle Slaw
Pumpkin Pie Coffee

A Box Social.
Members of the J. M. Black Sunday school class of First Presbyterian church will hold a box social on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the social rooms of the church. The adult classes of the school are invited to attend. There will be games and various forms of amusement during the evening.

Mr. Casey Was Here.
John F. Casey, president of the J. F. Casey Construction Company, Pittsburgh, which is erecting the new East Side bridge, was in Fairmont on Saturday and Sunday. He was well pleased with the progress on the bridge contract under existing handicaps to the building world.

Mr. Casey was accompanied by Mrs. Casey, his daughter, Miss Rose Mary, and Mrs. Casey's father, Mr. Lee.

Attended Meeting.
Misses Amanda C. Stowers and Miss Kirk White the former superintendent of nurses of Fairmont hospital and the latter a nurse there and Miss Margaret J. Leatham, superintendent of Cook hospital were all in Clarksburg on Saturday for the meeting of the West Virginia Graduate Nurse association. They report a splendid meeting. Several other nurses from Cook were present also at the sessions.

Sauer Kraut Supper.
Great preparations are being made by the ladies of Grace Lutheran church for the annual sauer kraut supper, which will be held on Wednesday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock. The ladies have established quite a reputation for serving fine suppers and their sauer kraut supper is usually one of the treats of the season. The menu to be served this year is especially attractive of which home made sauer kraut is the chief feature. The following menu will be served:

Roast Pork Select Weinerwurst

Our Famous Sauer Kraut

Mashed Potatoes Baked Beans

Celery Tomato Ketchup Jelly

Brad Butter Jelly

Home-Made Pumpkin Pies

Coffee

Adults 75c Children 50c

Ice Cream and Cake—Extra.

Have Daughter.

A baby daughter, Miss Betty Lou, arrived yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Jamison at their home on Coleman avenue. This is the first daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Jamison, their only other child being Master Mansfield Jamison. Mr. Jamison is assistant cashier of the National Bank of Fairmont.

To Meet.
The program of MacFarland Chapter, West Minister Guild, which meets tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the parlor of the First Presbyterian church, is as follows: Guild Hymn; devotional, "The Bible which we forget," Deborah Fitzgerald; business; piano solo, Nell Morris; study class, chapter 2, "A Crusade of Compassion; leaders, Louise Leonard, Elsie Welch; benediction.

To Have Box Social.

MRS. L. C. POWELL'S FUNERAL TODAY

Services for Well Known Woman Held in Church She Loved.

Mrs. Lucy C. Powell aged 70, one of the best beloved women of this city and the widow of Lamar C. Powell, in his life time a prominent citizen of this city, died at five o'clock Saturday evening at Cook hospital after an illness of four weeks which followed an accident which befell her. Mrs. Powell was descending a stairway at her home on Cleveland avenue when she tripped and fell and in so doing fractured her hip. She was taken to Cook hospital for treatment and about ten days ago developed pneumonia and had since been in a critical condition.

Mrs. Powell was before her marriage Miss Lucy Orr Reed and was born at Steubenville, Ohio. She was a daughter of Robert and Jane Reed. In the year 1874 she was united in marriage at the old Presbyterian church in this city. Mr. Powell died about six years ago. The deceased came here to reside when a girl of fourteen. She was the youngest of a family of thirteen children only two of whom survive, namely, Captain Thomas Reed of this city and Mrs. Deborah Purcell of Iva, Oklahoma. Those who preceded her to the grave were B. F. Reed who died at his home in Fairmont several years ago; Mrs. Amanda McFarland, Mrs. Rebecca M. Gould, Mrs. Sadie Seaman, Miss Jane Reed, Samuel, Robert, John William and George Reed. All grew to manhood and womanhood.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Powell, one of whom died in infancy. Joseph Evermont Powell the eldest child grew to manhood and died in this city several years ago. Two children survive, namely Wayne Reed Powell and Thomas Powell, both of this city. Five grandchildren also survive her, namely Carol Powell, daughter of the late J. E. Powell and Mrs. Myrtle Carroll Powell, Lucy Margaret Powell, daughter of Wayne Powell and Robert, Thomas and Jack, sons of Thomas Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell took up their residence on Cleveland avenue, then Batney street, following their marriage and at the time of her death Mrs. Powell resided in a property on that avenue which took the place of the original homestead of a number of years ago. Mr. Powell the husband of the deceased was a prominent newspaper man and was the founder of The West Virginian and published this paper until a few years before his death.

Mrs. Powell was prominently identified with the social and religious life of the community when it was a small town and has seen the town develop from a mere hamlet into the thriving city it now is.

She was always prominent in church work and was one of the oldest members of the Presbyterian church in this city with which organization she always took an active interest. She took a special interest in the work of the Missionary societies of the church. She was also greatly interested in the work of the W. C. T. U. and was one of the original Crusaders only a few of which are living at this time. In her young womanhood Mrs. Powell sang in the Presbyterian choir and took a leading part in the musical affairs of the city. She retained her voice to a remarkable degree and in the Old Folks concert given here a few years ago charmed her hearers with her sweet singing.

Mrs. Powell was possessed of an unusually pious disposition and her friends were legion. She was kind and charitable to all with whom she came in contact and it is doubtful if she had an enemy during her entire life. In the neighborhood where she resided she was greatly beloved and will be sadly missed not only there but throughout the entire city. In the home she was a loved member and was always a kind and faithful wife and mother.

When the news of the accident that befell her spread through the city universal regret was expressed and hope was held out that she might eventually recover from the effects of the fall. However she grew worse a few days ago and died.

The body was removed to her late home on Cleveland avenue Saturday evening and this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock funeral services were held from the church and were largely attended by relatives and friends.

The services were conducted by the Rev. H. G. Stoetzer who paid a high tribute of respect to the life and character of the deceased. A quartette composed of Mrs. Myrtle Shaw Waddell and Mrs. Forrest Fankhauser, Lamar Satterfield and L. H. Randall sang effectively "The Home of the East," "Abide with Me" and "Come Ye Disciples." All favorites of Mrs. Powell's.

Following the services the body was conveyed to Woodlawn cemetery where it was laid to rest. The pall bearers were nephews of the deceased, namely John Reed of Wheeling, C. Frank Reed of this city, W. T. Reed of Benson, Harrison county, Rush Miller of Morgantown and M. E. Miller of Fairmont. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were sent in memory of Mrs. Powell by her legion of friends.

M. V. T. Freight Agent
Now at Shinnston

For the purpose of improving the service at Shinnston, O. W. Brown, who conducts a confectionary store and news stand at that place, has been appointed as freight agent for the M. V. T. company. This is a step in the right direction, as prior to this appointment the town had no freight agent.

Power of Eloquence.
Judge—Are you positive the prisoner is the man who stole the horse?
Witness—I was, your lordship, till that lawyer cross-examined me. Now I'm not sure that I didn't steal it myself.—Edinburgh Scotsman.
